

Online Game Classification and License/Certificate

Type	Description	Licenses/ Registration Requirement
G1	- Video games that have interaction among multiple players via the game server (hereinafter referred to as G1 games);	License from the Ministry of Information and Communication (MIC)
G2	- Video games that only have interaction between the players and the game server (hereinafter referred to as G2 games);	The certificate of eligibility to provide video games G2 issued by the Department of Radio and Television and Electronic Information - MIC
G3	- Video games that have interaction among multiple players without interaction between players and the game server (hereinafter referred to as G3 games);	The certificate of eligibility to provide video games G3 issued by the Department of Radio and Television and Electronic Information - MIC
G4	- Video games that are downloaded from the Internet without the interaction among players and between players and the game server (hereinafter referred to as G4 games).	The certificate of eligibility to provide video games G4 issued by the Department of Radio and Television and Electronic Information - MIC